18. STEP INTO THE SKY

My little Rosie Rose, the day is new
The sun is shining and the skies are blue
Your heart is strong and kind; your heart is true
You can be brave so you'll know what to do
 There will be days of storm-clouds and thunder
 Days of sorrow, days of joy, you'll laugh until you cry
 Take on the world and take in the wonder
 Spread your wings and feel the wind
 And step into the sky

Go where you will, away, beyond the clouds
Away so high above the madding crowds
Take all the love you have, the love you give
Your gentle passions and your will to live
 Over the oceans, over the mountains
 Spiral on the rising air, go floating on the breeze
 Dive through the canyons, rolling and tumbling
 Open heart and open mind
 Go take them where you please

And should it be you fail, or if you fall
As everyone does sometime, one and all
It's up to you, just you, to find a way
To still your beating heart, stay cool and say:
 "I won't give in, no, I won't surrender
 Get back up; I'll dust me off -
 My loss can be my win
 Day after night a new day is dawning
 Spread my wings and feel the wind
 And step into the sky"

19. TAKE ME ACROSS THE RIVER

Take me across the river so wide
Take me to see the other side
Grass is greener; the sky is blue
I just wanna be there with you
There with you, there with you
There with you, there with you
Grass is greener; the sky is blue
I just wanna be there with you
I just wanna be there with you
You, you, you

20. WELCOME TO MY DOCUMENTARY /SONG OF A REFUGEE

Welcome to My Documentary

Welcome to my document'ry, all about being me
Running in slow motion, running down to the sea
See me in my document'ry, me and my family
Playing in my bedroom, watching 'toons on the T.V.

We've got a car in the garage, roof over our heads
Food on the table and blankets on our beds
Clothes I can choose from, some socks and some shoes
People I love and some who love me too

Song of a Refugee

Bombers in the sky, no-one heard me cry
When my house was broken, no-one even heard me cry
All the roofs and walls, nothing left at all
Hiding from the fighting, nothing left at all

I really know about war, hunger and pain
Truly I have really been afraid
Now I'm asking please, begging on my knees
Help me, help me please
